Treasurer's Report: A motion was by President George Raymaker and approved by Treasurer Ann Hayes (Bonham), to award $100 to the Preble/Bellevue Optimist Club's annual spring Easter Egg Hunt held at Preble Park. The funds will help pay for candy distributed to youngsters attending the event. Optimist representatives Debbie and Tom Deer will accept the gift upon approval of other Optimist Board members.

Old Business: (Our Association sign) -George Raymaker will invite a Neighborhood Development Supervisor and/or intern to our April meeting to assist us with developing the final artwork for our PPNA sign and its placement.

President George Raymaker and Board member notes/discussion/actions included:

- Optimist representatives Debbie and Tom Deer described the 15 year history of the annual Easter Egg Hunt held at Preble Park; PPNA members and board members were encouraged to attend to meet and greet people in our neighborhood and to explain the mission of our new Association; local boy scouts and Bellevue and Preble Optimist members will assist with setup and activities on April 19th at Preble Park Shelter. The Egg Hunt begins in the park (no matter the weather) at 11:00a.m. Area children age 2-11 are invited and must be accompanied by an adult; the event is free with no registration requirements.
- A representative from the Green Bay Public Schools explained in detail the need for upgrades and building improvements at area GB schools and the importance of voting in the upcoming school referendum regarding the upgrades.
- The PPNA is now on Facebook; Troy Kawalski set it up and will begin by communicating our mission statement and notes from meetings; more will be communicated as we further develop the site.
- Ellen Larson attended the City Neighborhood Association quarterly meeting and will give us a report at the April Meeting.
